

Saint Mark United Methodist Church

IN EVERY THING GIVE THANKS

Our prayers may be awkward.
Our attempts may be feeble.
But since the power of prayer
is in the one who hears it
and not in the one who says it,
our prayers do make a difference.

~~ Max Lucado

ARISE and SAINT MARK FEATURE DR. BRANDON BOYD
AT 30th ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

ARISE (African-Americans Renewing Interest in Spirituals Ensemble, Inc.) turned 30 this year. To commemorate this milestone, the organization, in conjunction with Saint Mark United Methodist Church will host a weekend of activities, highlighting past directors, musicians and an icon in African American spirituals, Dr. Brandon Boyd. A protégé of Dr. Andre Thomas and Dr. Roland Carter, Dr. Boyd is a prolific composer and arranger of spirituals and a professor of music at the University of Missouri.

Founded in 1988 by Wichita educator and musician, Josephine Brown, ARISE has been a staple in the Wichita community, presenting concerts and educating children and adults regionally, regarding the uplifting qualities of African American Spirituals for thirty years and counting. In addition to honoring Dr. Boyd, ARISE will recognize its founder and current ARISE choral director, Shawn Chastain, as well as Huron Breaux, Steven Jones past director and musician and June Faucette-Huff, ARISE accompanist.

The following day, November 17, from 2 to 7 pm, along with Dr. Boyd, these directors and musicians will conduct a music workshop with current, past and guest singers comprising the ARISE Homecoming Choir. The Free Sunday concert on November 18 is at 7 pm with doors opening at 6:15. The workshop and concert will both be held at Saint Mark, with the concert being emceed by KWCH TV12's Angela McLaurin. In addition, Saint Mark Praise dancers, under the direction of Adrienne DeGraffenreid will present a special rendition of "Wade in the Water." There will be a free will love offering, and the public is invited to obtain complimentary tickets to be eligible for door prizes. Refreshments will also be served.
